

Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, D. C. 20543

CHAMBERS OF
JUSTICE SANDRA DAY O'CONNOR (RET.)

June 2015

Dear Homer,

Please give my warmest greetings and best wishes to the current and former CEELI and ROLI volunteers and those involved in the CEELI Institute who have gathered in Prague.

As you celebrate this impressive anniversary, you are to be congratulated for what you have done and for what you continue to do to better our world. All of us share a common commitment to the rule of law and the critically important role it plays in our lives. By taking time out of your careers to join in that effort, you reflect the finest traditions of our legal profession.

You can take great pride in what you have done in enlisting countless lawyers, judges, and others in helping to build civil, law-based societies. We know, and see every day, however, that despite remarkable accomplishments, embedding the rule of law remains a long-term challenge.

As some of my fondest memories are of the delightful and inspiring meetings we CEELI board members had with CEELI volunteers and staff, I am sorry not to be with you. Please allow me to celebrate with you virtually. And please continue the profoundly important work that you do.

Sincerely,

Sandra Day O'Connor

Mr. Homer E. Moyer, Jr.
CEELI/ABA/ROLI