

Banks & Borders!

The 4th International Fundraising Festival 2013 / Prague, April 10–11–12th / www.fundraising.cz/iff

The 4th biannual meeting of creativity and innovation in fundraising has been scheduled. Mark the dates in your calendars!

River banks, ocean shelves, coral reefs, swamps, highway sides, wetlands and moors rank among the richest natural ecosystems. The most interesting and inspiring things often happen on margins or by the border where one world meets the other, among outsiders. We believe that this is true also in fundraising and that – in fact – the interaction between different „worlds and species“ has been growing increasingly more important for philanthropy in the past years.

This is why the 2013 edition of this unique fundraising learning and sharing event will explore margins, BORDERS and BANKS where different worlds come together – the world of philanthropy and civil society organizations, the world of business, the world of the media, the world of marketing and communications, the world of national and local public policy and so forth.

The Czech Fundraising Center is thus pleased and proud to invite you to the 4th International Fundraising Festival (IFF) to take place from April 10 to 12, 2013 in Prague. The Czech Fundraising Center (CZ), partner organizations from Hungary, Moldova, Poland and Slovakia have designed three great festival days packed with inspiration and sharing about BORDERS and BANKS of fundraising.

IFF challenges the traditional conference format and for this reason, the number of participants is again limited to 100. So do not miss your opportunity to join interactive workshops by recognized experts, to discuss with professional colleagues from the CEE region and from around the Globe, to enjoy simulations and games, to learn by doing, to become the open space and much more. Thanks to support from our partners and from other donors the IFF fee is only € 349. We provide an early bird discount to € 299 for those who apply before February 28, 2013 and yet another discount to € 249 for all EFA members. Members of the Club of Professional Fundraisers by the Czech Fundraising Center and the Slovak Fundraising Center and those who are interested in membership pay a special discounted registration fee of € 149.

The agenda is yet to be specified and agreed with all speakers, so please be patient and give us time to finalize it. However, if you want to register already, you can fill out the on-line application form (<http://www.fundraising.cz/iff/join-us>).

For any further information about the festival, about speakers, the agenda, about organizers or any other information you might need, please check www.fundraising.cz/iff or contact Jana Ledvinova at jana.ledvinova@fundraising.cz.

*Spring is great in Prague and April is the very best.
We are looking forward to seeing you here!*
